

C. P. HOGAN,
ATTORNEY,
—AND—
COUNSELLOR * AT * LAW.

Sheldon, Vt., March 28, 1888.

Miss Fletcher,

Rec'd. yours of the 26, and in compliance with your request I presented your application to the Chairman of our Prudential Com. and with pleasure, supplemented it with all the good & complimentary remarks I could fairly manufacture for the occasion. He promised me that he would write you & take into consideration your application, & I trust he may engage you, though I must say, I do not think the school a very desirable one to teach, all things considered. However, I know others have applied, & some of them have before taught here, & I rec'd. a letter from one such lady today. I think they generally pay from $5. to $6. per week, not including board, which can be had for about $2. ^{or $2.50} per week, I think. I am not sure of these figures, but have an impression they paid about $5.50 last year. I have nothing to do with it myself. Please extend my regards to your father & Mother. Hoping you may make satisfactory arrangements.

I am truly yours, C. P. Hogan.
