Dear Katie

I hope you will forgive me for not writing you before but my time has been occupied with one thing and another which has kept me from writing before.

Well how are all the folks in J - I have had a nice time since I left J. I went to Canada and intended was two days in Montreal, and visited quite a number of my friends and now I have settled down. (not to be an old maid school teacher) We are making cigars now I don't know how much we have made, between
