

to good.

Dear William and the woman

April 2 1888

At home

Dearest Kate

I don't know when this letter will reach you but your people probably will forward it to you. They have you flown to Malook so suddenly and are you going to spend the summer there.

I was perfectly surprised when I found you were going away.

As a result of sitting here by me studying I have grown lazy and have stopped and