

Johnson, W.
May 17, 1888.

Dear Friends K-:-

I will now
try and commence this letter but will not promise to finish
it to night.

Well I suppose that you are training
the young wethers
minds these hot days & I wish that I were doing the same kind of work instead of
tilling the soil.