

[1888?]

Johnson W. June 25th

Dear Kate

I hardly know how to commence to tell you how disappointed I was yesterday and probably you were as much so as I was but truly I could not find a horse any where I went to four or five different places & they had all gone away or left their horses so as there was no cure & so far I could not well I had to stay at home & put in a miserable Sunday