

Danville

February

the 6 1850

Uncle Aunt Ruth Colch tells me that Father is to start for Watterville tomorrow morning I see I will write a few words you must not expect much for it is past 8 and I shall not have time I received your kind letter in due time was glad to hear that you were all well I had thought perhaps you was not well the cause of your not writing sooner I should be glad to hear from you as ~~soon~~ after as is convenient for you to write Carnelia started for Massachusetts yesterday morning he is going to try to get into the post business in Hopkinton or Millfield I don't know how he will succeed but he thinks that he can do a great deal better there than he could here I had rather he would stay here or go to St Johnsbury but he would not heed advice in any way he had made up his mind to go on so he went I told him that he must write