

[1856?]

I was disappointed to hear that Father was gone to the stern. I wish ~~so soon~~ I glad his trials were over I did not expect it so soon but know he would not long be stony when I left him he was so different in every thing & if I could have been there I would have given considerable he would that he never should see me again but I had heard it so many times that it did frighten me very I can see a great many things that I done wrong now
