Dear Uncle & Aunt

I take the first opportunity to write you. I do not feel aggrieved because I have waited so long. I am home very tired and found a house full of people and more than full of work. Before I could get things in order Aunt Amanda came Mrs Underwood was here before (Mary Thorne) and as in all probability neither of them will ever visit us again I have given every moment to them that I could spare from house work. I have had no help and have worked very hard.
