Dear Aunt:

Your favor of the 6th inst-came duly to hand yesterday, and I take the liberty to do an unusual thing for me, ie, open my Office and seat myself to write you on Sunday, - Ordinary business letters must lie over until business hours, - This however is an exceptional case and as my time is fully occupied week days for fear I would post-pone writing I for once break the former rules of the Office, - I trust you will pardon me for so doing, - Your letter finds us in comfortable health, in the main, Mrs Pratt is not- entirely well, and neither am I, - she is slightly malarious, and I am simply overworked, - and all I need is rest, - Our children are well, The Oldest - Clark Amiel, was
