

Woodstock
Vermont.

Nov. 8th 1882.

Dear Mr. Marsh,

Your most welcome letter of Oct. 8th came in my absence in the far West. I lose no time now in thanking you for its very kind expressions. I deem myself most fortunate in having the privilege of purchasing the most valuable library of your late husband, and of giving it