

Paris January 25th 1873.
64, Rue de la Rochechouart.

My dear Mrs. Marsh,

I beg to send you the pleasant news that my daughter is to be married on the 14th of next month to M. Charles Bigot, un grand prix d'athlès: thus you see he is a man of letters. He is highly satisfactory to us all, especially to Mary!

At last I have all my fifteen large cases from Rome. I wish you could see how well my atelier is arranged, when you next visit Paris I hope we may see you in it and also to show you our nice grandchildren playing in the garden. I have about finished my picture
