Burlington Sept 14 1848.

Dear Sir

Our county consists of fifteen towns. We have the two senators, Wm. Huntington, Colchester, Hinesburgh, Milton and St George; Richmond doubtful.

Mr Peck is taking all proper measures, and counts on one senator (Burgeson of Huntington) and the Reps from W Burlington, Colchester, Hinesburgh & St George, five in all.

The other senator, (Dr Ham-ilton of Jericho), and Mr Whittemore of Milton, he thinks will be against you. Upon the Richmond member, who was elected as a whip, but is claimed by the Free-soilers, no calculation can be made.

I hope you will accept my
