

Windsor April 4. 1858.

Dear Sir,

Yours of the 8th is received and I am at loss what to say in answer.

Is it possible that, as Commissioners, we have any official vitality? I had supposed our functions ceased on the first of April last, and such was probably the construction of the Legislature by the passing of a resolution assigning, to the Commissioners appointed "to prepare a plan for rebuilding the State House," a specific duty in the matter of the "suitable the figure to be placed on the dome."

Mr Sillaway was with me last evening. It is his intention to go to Montpelier as soon as he can arrange his home affairs, and remain there some time, perhaps thro' the summer, unless Dr Powers should
