Dear Mr. March

Your three letters all came to hand a few days ago, and I haste to reply. That relative to Alexander I have given Professor + send to his family Prof. H. Say. Mrs. Alexander is still blind, and that his children are doing quite well -

Much obliged for the stamps. I make them pay in various ways, and I will be glad to have any you can send. Thanks for the note about the exchanges. We are endeavouring to organize the system and will soon have more to say about it.

We have been crammed with Russian literature of late and attempts of nothing else, much. It is said that Mr. Seward is negotiating for Vancouver island and British Columbia. Now would I be much surprised. I had to tell all I know about R. A. and according to newspaper accounts much more, in their reports make
