

Burlington June 29th 1866

Geo. P. Marsh Esq
Dear Sir

Your letter was duly recd and we were all glad to hear of your continued health. We are all about as usual. I think father and mother are better since my family left them alone as they have nothing to trouble them. My baby is quite healthy, just talks a little and is the tyrant of the house. His grand father lets him do just as he likes consequently he is the prime favorite. Father has sold his lot on the hill to Mr Geo Francis for $700. and with that he releases the mortgage from the old place. I think it will be the happiest day of his life when the papers are all filed. My wife's father Mr Benjamin died last March in Bridport. Our Collector Delapp has been removed and Gen Stannard reigns in his stead. We are having the hottest of times over our Senators. We had a Union Caucus here last evening to nominate delegates to the County Convention next week. We are divided into Poland men and Morrill men, or otherwise into Morrill and in Morrill men. At the Caucus