

Ashfield, Massachusetts.

July 27, 1881.

Dear Mrs. Marsh

I had the pleasure of receiving last night your second kind letter in regard to the Benvenuto da Imola comment. I thank you and Mr. Marsh sincerely for the trouble you are taking in the matter. Now that you have got hold of the copyist who worked for Lord Vernon I hope that your trouble is almost at an end.

It is curious that there should apparently be at the Laurentian a lack of information in respect