

Villa d'Elia

S. Gallo gate.

Dec. 4, 1869.

Dear Mr. Marsh

If young Mr. Astor would like to talk with me about his plans, I should be very glad to see him. I rarely go out before noon, and should be quite at his service any morning of next week.

I do not know whether you keep up your old taste for engravings, but if so, you may perhaps like to see rather a fine collection of Diuers Rembrandts which has lately been sent me from Germany. I propose to return the greater part of them in a few days. I forgot to mention them to you yesterday. If you care to see them, I will send me word when you will come to look at them I will be at home. I have no engagements to take me away. I am
