

Villa d'Elci.

Feb. 6, 1870

My dear Mr. Marsh

I was very sorry to lose the pleasure of seeing Mrs. Marsh and yourself yesterday, - and I regretted my loss the more because there were one or two matters on which I particularly wished to speak with you. I shall hope to see you soon at the Villa Forini.

In a letter which I received a few days since from Dr. Theodor Paur, of Götting he asks me to obtain for him information. - "ob. die Herren Maggi und Ancona ihr beabsichtigtes Unternehmen, (wovon Herr Seymour Kirkup an Wette schrieb)