My dear Mr. Marsh

I have not seen you since I left London in 1847. I have not seen you since I left London in 1847. I have not seen you since I left London in 1847.

It is 44 years ago that my father began to buy books of Messrs. J. & W. Boone, 29 New Bond Street, London, - and in that time they have done well both by him & by me. The address of the firm is as I give it. I believe both the original members of the Society Mr. Thomas Boone & Mr. John Boone are one of them. I cannot speak highly of his knowledge of books that he will not give you much reason
