

My dear Mrs. Weston
I have not yet received your letter of the 26th of the 26th of the month. I am sorry that I have not had time to write you more fully.

My servant was told that the British Legation this morning that Ld Acton had gone to the war at Trieste, & that Basviere & Ba-was varied. In any case, you will at I have not yet received your letter. I must return to you in a few days.

I cannot say much for our poor little niece. She raised blood from the lungs day before yesterday.

In the first time. Our Irish doctor does not consider this an indeed the circumstances, a bad symptom. I think Dr. Cipriani regard it as a grave matter. She has however, been without fever, & quite comparatively little
