

My Dear Grand Mauch

Longworth and I expect to leave here day after tomorrow for England. and we shall probably be in Turin on the 1st July - but do not intend to stop there more than a few hours - We shall do as you have advised, and come directly to your house -

We were all right glad to hear of Mrs Mauch's safe arrival home & in her usual health -

The news from Rome, on the whole looks as well as could reasonably be expected - some mishaps, and sad loss of life - but the feeling of the Court is rapidly coming to the point - about Slavery. The cause of all our woes - just as the Italians came at last - and far more slowly come to the conclusion - that the Pope is the cause of most of their troubles -

The taxes of Slavery had become so mixed up with every interest in our country - that to cast them out
