

Newport News June 23rd 61

Dear Maria:

Again I seat myself to write you a few lines but my seat is not a cushioned Chair nor my table very nicely painted and varnished but this matters but little if I can but have the privilege of communicating with you. Thus far we have been greatly favoured in receiving mail matter I hope we will not be deprived the privilege of hearing from each other often, but possibly we may but I think if we are not moved from this place we shall get mails regularly and we do not apprehend a move very soon but we cant tell what will take place. Nothing of much interest has happened since I last wrote you so I shall have but little to write but as our Co, has been out into the Country for two days past senting around I will
