Camp Davis Prattibon July 6-

Dear Wife

I arrived here safe Saturday morning and feel much better than when I left I have talked with the Col, and he tells me that I shall go home again if it is possible and he thinks it will be The Regt is now full and will be mustered in Tuesday I expect, I am officer of the day to day and have many papers to sign as well as other duties to perform and with a great lot of recruits there is a thousand things to tend to, but they will learn after a while, I have nothing new to write and you must be content with this till I see you again

Respectfully Yours, Val, G. Barney
