Camp Sigel Near
Winchester Va Aug 15, 62

Dear Wife

I presume you will think it about time you heard from me again and as it is a pleasant task to write you I will not delay any longer, since I last wrote we have moved our camp but not to the place when I expected, we are now just at the East Corner of the fort and very pleasantly situated though not in the woods. The 32^d Ohio moved over where I thought we should and the woods where our old Camp was is all cut down being done last night after midnight by moonlight, and after that hour the ^{constant} crashing of falling trees made very pleasant music to sleep by. I expect by the movements that we are to remain here for some time and probably our reg^t will garrison the fort. I have detailed 7 men from our Co. to man the
