Dear Maria

It is now four days since I last wrote to you and I must not let another pass or you will think that something is wrong, We have had no mail here now for two days and the report is that it was burned up on board the train yesterday with 2 or 3 cars but how true it is I cant say but I am in hopes it will yet come around as it did before and with a letter or 2 from you, I recd the Box by Expr. day before yesterday and was surprised to see it here so soon it was but 3 days on the way. It contained quite a lot of Medicines and the Boots which are just the fit and got here just in time as yesterday was a wet, rainy day and
