Dear Wife

Once more I seat myself to write you as it is Sunday and but little is being done I have just got through with inspection and have cut out two small photographs for you which I will enclose, you can keep the one that suits you best and give the other ^{to} who you choose I will also put one of my other ones in for Sister Martha and you can hand it to her and although they are cheap and small I like them about as well as the larger ones I had 48 of them taken and will send more of them if you wish, I had a letter from you night before last and was glad
