My Dear Wife:

Your first letter from Charleston written Wednesday evening Nov. 26th was rec'd last night. I am glad to hear that you can come so soon. Will your teeth fit well if set so early after the old ones are extracted? You did not tell me whether you had had the old ones out or not. I suppose you had, this I should hardly expect you would pass so important an event by without saying something.

I hope by this time you have rec'd all the letters I directed to Bradford. I continued to write to B. because I did not know
