Tuesday

Brother Henry,

I must write a word to you tonight although it is past nine o'clock. All the boys are having pie, apples, cake, cheese, apple sauce, chickens etc. and these goodies do them boys so much good. You can not tell how they gladden their eyes, and all these things remind me of my brother Luke and how he would like a box of the like. Now then I want you to get some of these articles and box them up and direct to Ezekiel's Captive Care for your brother E. I know Grandma, Mary, Lench Thomas and Mother will put in a slice a piece for him, and be sure and put in a loaf of brown bread. Now you

Just as before
