

P.S. Mary & I saw Herrick when we went to Marlboro. He was well but said you would have more letters - Do you drink them any more?

Dear Laura

Your letter of Jan'y 26th is rec'd. I have intended to answer all your letters & all your questions - I have all the letters but one or two & all the questions that I could remember - I will look them better thru & answer seriatim -

You say you miss the paper - I supposed that there were papers & magazines enough come to me so that you need not miss the daily much. I am taking it here & it costs $8.00 a year $16.00 for the two - I thought you could get along better than I could. Please write me whether the N. Y.
Times & the Burlington Times now reach you - & what other papers &c -

I have not seen Herrick for more than a month. He is promoted to the place of 1st Lieut -

Mary says that she has not seen your braids of hair. She did not open the dress you sent her as it came to her just as she was about to leave - She has forgotten what you
