

Camp of 12th W. Vol. M.
Three Miles below Warrenton Junction
Va.
May, 4th 1863 -

My Dear Wife:

I wrote you Friday night telling you that we were ordered to change camp - We marched from Wolf Run Shoals, Saturday forenoon, reached Union Hill about noon, took the cars then & reached this place just after four o'clock. We are on the R. R.
where the road from Warrenton to Falmouth crosses it, about three miles from Warrenton Junction and eight or ten from Warrenton.
We have nothing but our field equipage -
No very good accommodations for ladies.
We are encamped in an open field. The country is level & we can see miles of beautiful country. Wolf Run Shoals does not give one much of an idea of this part of Virginia. It must be a beautiful country to live in. I am now sitting in my shirt sleeves with the tent open & no stove -
The air is as mild as June at home -
