My Dear Wife:

Your letter written in Charleston the 6th was rec'd yesterday I had written you a letter which went back by the same train that yours came on directing it to Bradford as you had written that you thought you should go home tomorrow - (Tuesday) I am sorry that I have not known where you was to be more certainly for I would have sent you some more money - I am afraid you are getting short & wish you to have all you need.

I sent you the $5.00 that Lupton paid me & am sorry that I did not send ten or twenty - You see that we are in the same

25 I shall send this to you
