

Vermont & Boston Telegraph Company

BETWEEN

BOSTON, MONTREAL AND OGDENSBURGH;

ALSO, SPRINGFIELD AND ST. JOHNSBURY;

And intermediate places. With connections to all parts of the United States and Canada.

Terms and Conditions on which Messages are received by this Company for transmission.

The public are notified, that in order to guard against mistakes in the transmission of messages, every message of importance ought to be repeated, by being sent back from the station at which it is to be received to the station from which it is originally sent. Half the usual price for transmission will be charged for repeating the message. This Company will not be responsible for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery of unrepeated messages, from whatever cause they may arise; nor will it be responsible for damages arising from mistakes or delays of a repeated message, beyond an amount exceeding one hundred times the amount paid for sending the message; nor will it be responsible for delays arising from interruptions in the working of its Telegraphs, nor for any mistake or omission of any other Company over whose lines the message is to be sent to reach its place of destination. All messages will hereafter be received by this Company for transmission, subject to the above conditions.
