

Camp Holbrook Jan 27/12

Brother "Charlie,"

And all the rest I sit ~~my~~ self upon my bunk with a piece of board in my lap to write a word once more to let you know that I am well and contented with camp life as I expected; although we are deprived of many things that are pleasant; but under stand that to begin with, we have something going on among the boys for amusement and therefore it keeps us from being idle and dull.
There is now ten Com^{rs} of infantry and one of Artillery, the Com^{rs} are not all full yet; dont know whether they wil wait til they are full or not, it has been very stormy weather here for a week or more past,
