Camp Holbrook Co. A
8th Vt. Reg
Brattleboro Feb 19th / 62

I wil try & write a few lines to let you know what is going on in our encampment, there has not been much of interest in camp Holbrook for sometime except our drill; until yesterday there was an inspection of the regiment & the Artillery Co. & six Co. of infantry wer sworn into the United States service. & the other four wer this morning, there was a few that refused to take the oath, but I think they wil take them along with them. our fair is about the same as ever rag hash soup and some boild
