Dear Sister,

I received yours & Fathers letters of the 18th and was glad to hear from you. It has been some time since I have had a letter from you. Since I last wrote you at home our Company have moved 52 miles from Algiers out into the country in a South west direction, we are guarding a place where the rebels burnt a bridge on the railroad. I suppose you have heard by the letters I have wrote before that we have moved from the city of New Orleans across the river to Algiers and now we are here, there is three Co. of us here and two more about 4 or 5 miles
