September 24th/62

Dear Father,

I take my pen once more to write a few lines to you to let you know that I am well and hope these lines will find you enjoying the same blessing;
It is with feelings of deep interest and anxiety that I attempt to write this morning— for since I last to you I am aware there had been a sad change in circumstances with you and all of the affairs at home; When I think of the friends I left at home— I can hardly believe that dear Brother Charley is taken away,
