

Feb 10th 1863

Good morning Meda;

After my first to the City yesterday I thought of finishing my letter to you; but there not being much time - and besides this I found myself some what tired after traveling most of the time from 9 O'clock till three P.M. I Concluded to postpone till this morning, I thought there was quite a difference in the City now and when we first landed in it the 12th of last May, I went into a good many Stores and Shops yesterday that last May was almost entirely empty - that are now filled and doing good business.

I traveled a most through the best part of the City - I saw a great many nice things and that is all the
