Dear Sister:

I have just finished reading your kind letter of the 14th and will improve this evening in writing an answer to your letter. You said you hoped your letter would find my hand all healed up. I am happy to tell you that it found it even so; it has been healed over for two or three days - it has got so that I could do duty with it but am waiting to get my pay here before I go to the regt. if I dont get it here I shall get it till next pay day; my hand hasent been so bad any of the time so but I could fight rebels if I should come in contact with them.

I dont wonder the 8th has a big name up there if they believe all such
