Dear Mother

I now take my pen in hand to write a few lines to you I am in good health now and hope that these few lines will find you enjoying the same blessings we are having rather bad weather now the mud is very deep one day pleasents the next snow or rain I have but little to say about the women in this Seelter they are but little consequence to me they are low in my mind and as low vile, every one in the the same scale, I had a letter ^{from} a fair writer from North Troy telling me that Herman Belden was dead he was in the 1.
