"Camp Griffin" Va.
Oct. 12th 1861

Dear Father

I received your letter this eve, I was very glad to hear from home once more. I could not imagine why I had not heard before. We are getting along here splendidly. And excellent health. I have not been a sick day since I left home, most all have been troubled with colds & ect. but I have been exempt from everything. I feel in fine spirits. Since my last letter we have moved from