October 3rd 1852

His Excellency
Governor Holbrook
Brattleboro' Vt.

Dear Sir,

The mistake of the President <sup>to suppose</sup> ~~is~~ that the revolution can spend itself within the ordinary limits of political action — that moral ideas can be subjected to motives of policy and human convenience. If he should succeed in inducing the
