

Camp Griffin Feb. 28th 62

Dear Sister:—

I will write you a few words to night that you may know how we are getting along here away down in 'Old Virginia'

You wished in your last letter to know how I liked my Superior Officers. Col. Stoughton is a young man—the youngest Col. in the service and the smartest one in the Vermont Brigade. He is a fine looking man—about the medium height. rather light curly hair. heavy mustoch simply—active and energetic—And I have
