

Camp near Harrison's Landing
July 12th 1862

My dear sister,

I have delayed
writing you as I supposed probably you were at home and not would read the letter I sent Father soon after we arrived here in Camp after our eventful march in retreat of nearly a week from June 27th

I would take me
a longer time than I can spend now to give the full particulars of our participation in the late events and
too you have read
