

Camp Bradley Aug 18th 62

My Darling I received your letter written Sunday, this afternoon I am glad to hear you are so bran, and getting along so well.
I cannot tell yet where I am going to be, I am under pay now acting as Adjutant of the 11th Regt. the adjt. is a Mr Curtis of Burlington, who has not arrived yet. I am expecting very moment to get my appoint as Major in one of the Regts, but I have to be patient and wait the motion of these "big men".
I supposed I should know
