

Head Quarters 10th V^o
Camp in the field
near Culpeper Va.

Sept 27th 1863

My Dear good darling wife

This has been a warm pleasant Sabbath day, and is a beautiful moonshiny evening.
I have been at home most all day attending to visitors from the "Old Brigade" as they have gone into camp on our right, about a mile and a half off, and all have to go down to the village and see how that looks, and consequently they have to pass our camp, and most of the officers call up to see us a few minutes - There has been a stream of them here all day, and among the rest "Old blackhawk Hutchins" called to see "how I was getting along".
To you I have not had time to
