

Head Quarters 10th St

Camp near Brandy Station Va

My own dear wife Feb 15th 1864

Yours of the 12th came this evening - It was just as I expected, a struck of your old luck -

My darling I am sorry for you, for I know well how much you have anticipatated in visiting me here in the Army - but undoubtedly we shall be able to see some time why you was not permitted to come - I wrote you last what I thought in regard to your coming and I do so hope you was able to start today (Monday) but confound I do not expect you will - I will get a new pass and send you and you perhaps can come back with Surgeon Clark who will start for home tomorrow on 15 days leave - I will have him write
