

Monday May 16th 1864

My blessed one

Still I can say all is well with me and the "lucky old tenth" we are laying this morning about two miles on the south westerly side of Spotsylvania, having changed our position day before yesterday, from the north westerly side - from all I can learn

Lee is strongly posted in the vicinity and we expect to have a hard fight yet - I have not seen a news paper since the 4th but I understand they have published all