

3rd Div Hospital

Camp near Petersburg

June 25th 1864

My blessed darling wife

This is an awful hot day, but still I have mustered up courage enough to get up and write you a few lines just to let you know how we are getting along to day I am at the Hospital yet - Capt Dill - is here with his old complaint diarrhea but not very bad. and Lt Thompson with a slight wound on the leg, and diarrhea - we all camp with Dr Rutledge
