My blessed darling wife

I have been sitting before my little fire for the last hour, and thinking, Oh! so good about you, how good are. how much I love you, and what a glorious good time we will have when I get home, that it has made me almost homesick, and that makes me need to think my papers do not get back so I can be on my way to you for I cannot stand it much longer to be away from my darling wife. Dr Hollman and the Corps Band has here not got here yet from Washington, and I must wait I suppose until they do come.

Yesterday the Regiment moved out to support the fifth Corps
