

NOT A STAR MUST FALL.

Perhams Landing
Virginia May 13 1862

Friend Henry I have neglected to write to you before we left Yorktown because you could get all the news by telegraph before you could get a letter from me we started from Yorktown and followed the Rebels to Williamsburgh and there they made a stand but our forces give them a good whipping which set them a running to